

Position Vacant

Infinity Pilates in East St Kilda is looking for a confident, dedicated and experienced Pilates instructor.

At Infinity, we strive for the highest quality Pilates instruction for our clients. And that is what we expect from our teachers.

In return, we offer the right person a chance to excel at Pilates instruction in an open and respectful working environment, where continuous education to further your Pilates education is encouraged.

You must be prepared to work on a part time casual basis, including evenings and Saturdays, and have a minimum qualification of Pilates International Cert IV or Diploma Certification in Pilates instruction.

You will need to be able to teach clients with a broad range of needs: from rehabilitation to skills training. Your income will be negotiable and based on your level of experience.

If you have these Infinity qualities, please email your current resume to kerrie@infinitypilates.com. To find out more about us visit www.infinitypilates.com
